

Rock Creek
Veterinary Technology Building

Client: Portland Community College

Location: Portland OR

Architect: PCC In-House Architect

Project size: 2,400 SF

Site work and new construction of a premanufactured building to serve as the kennel and cattery for the veterinarian technology department. Scope included site work, building erection, sanitary and utility piping from college out to the site, kennel fencing, epoxy coatings and asphalt parking.

Healthcare

Commercial

Education

Financial

Industrial